

Opening of the main camp Natzweiler-Struthof : May 1941

Opening of the secondary camp in Urbès

February ? March 1944

Nota Bene : other deportees' convoys are mentionned, according to the sources and documents consulted. Transfers took place either by train, or by truck, especially by night, out of the local population's sights. Furthermore, serious sick prisoners in Urbès were systematically transferred to the main camp Natzweiler-Struthof.
